DPP Training & Events Schedule January 2007 – March 2008

Introduction & Methodology

This training and events schedule aims to include activities closely linked to the 5 functions of the DPP:

- Consult
- Prioritise
- Monitor
- Engage
- Act

The schedule has been developed by the Board taking into account the local DPP Training Needs Analysis, inputs from DPP Members and feedback from DPP Managers.

Content

The following areas have been identified for either central or local delivery of training:

Training/Briefings organised centrally by NIPB

- DPPs/PSNI post RPA
- Media Skills for newly appointed DPP Chairmen & Vice-Chairmen
- Policing with the Community & Call Management
- Young People & Youth Conferencing
- Community Relations Week Event on Diversity
- Community Engagement.

Other Training/Briefings (to be organised locally/regionally by DPP Managers or on an individual DPP basis)

- Briefing for newly appointed DPP Chairmen & Vice-Chairmen on Roles & Responsibilities, Good Practice for DPP Meetings & the DPP Appraisal Process (to be delivered in January 2007 & January 2008)
- Marketing & PR for DPP Members
- Section 75/Equality Training
- Facilitation Skills & Running Focus Groups
- Presentation Skills (as delivered for DPP Managers)
- Problem Solving utilising the PSNI's Hydra Minerva suite – target is one DPP per quarter (subject to successful pilot in March 2007).

Locations & Timings

The Board has planned these events, both during the day and in the evening, to give the maximum notice and opportunity for DPP Members to attend.

Further Information

Should you require any further information around any of these events you should contact your respective DPP Manager. This schedule can also be downloaded from the Extranet section of www.districtpolicing.com.
