Part 1

Introduction

Limavady District Policing Partnership Roles and Responsibilities

During the negotiations that resulted in the Belfast Agreement of Good Friday 1998, participants recognised that policing was an important and central issue for any society.

The Agreement led to the creation of the Independent Commission on Policing, also known as the Patten Commission after its chairman, Chris Patten. The Independent Commission was tasked with making recommendations on future policing arrangements which included encouraging widespread community support. Its 1999 report contained 175 recommendations, Recommendation 27 proposed the establishment of District Policing Partnerships or DPPs.

The Commission's proposal for a new structure of accountability was designed to ensure effective and democratically based oversight of policing and the creation of a close partnership between the police and local communities.

In November 2000 Parliament passed the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 2000, which was based on the Independent Commission's recommendations and made provision for the establishment of DPPs in each of Northern Ireland's 26 district council areas.

On 4 March 2003, 25 DPP's came into existence following one of the largest public appointments process ever undertaken in Northern Ireland.

Limavady District Policing Partnership is a partnership between Limavady Borough Council and representatives of the community and was set up in co-operation with the Northern Ireland Policing Board to:

- Give voice to community views on policing
- Monitor local police performance and
- Co-operate in preventing crime across the Limavady Borough

Limavady DPP has many important responsibilities. For example, it monitors local police performance, gives voice to community views on policing, identifies, discusses and prioritises local concerns and establishes policing priorities.

The DPP does this in consultation with the Police Service of Northern Ireland's (PSNIs) Area Commander for the Limavady District. The Area Commander for Limavady DCU is, Chief Inspector Stephen Cargin.

Chief Inspector, Stephen Cargin can be contacted at:

Limavady PSNI Station
11 Connell St
Limavady
BT49 0EA

Tel: 028 777 66797

DPPs also contribute to the formulation of local Policing Plans and together with local Area Commanders they will make a positive and significant difference to policing with the community across Northern Ireland.

Their roles and responsibilities are set out in Schedule 3 Part III of the Police (NI) Act 2000. They are to:

- Provide views to the district commander on any matter concerning policing in the district
- Monitor the performance of the police in carrying out the local policing plan
- Obtain the views of the public about matters concerning the policing of the district
- Obtaining the co-operation of the public with the police in preventing crime
- Act as a general forum for discussion and consultation on matters affecting the policing of the district.

Finding out the community's views, concerns and policing needs enables the AreaCommander to prioritise and deliver an effective and efficient service for the district. Consulting with the community about local policing is therefore an important role for DPPs.

Limavady DPP was set-up by the Northern Ireland Policing Board in co-operation with Limavady Borough Council on 4 March 2003.

It is made up of members of the local community who are either members of the public, or councillors elected to Limavady Borough Council. Members of the public who sit on Limavady DPP are known as 'Independent Members' as they do not represent a political party, while the councillors are known as 'Political Members'.

The Police (NI) Act 2000 gave councils the authority to determine the size of its DPP. Limavady DPP has 17 members, 8 Independent Members and 9 Political Members. (All DPPs have one more Political Member than they have Independent Members.)

The 9 Political Members of Limavady DPP is based on the strength of individual political parties on Limavady Borough Council. All members of the current DPP will serve until the next local election. All Independent Members were appointed in April 2008 and Political Members in December 2007.

The Political Members of Limavady DPP are:

| Name         | Party | Name          | Party |
|---------------------|--------------|----------------------|--------------|
| Cllr Paddy Butcher  | Sinn Féin    | Ald Gerry Mullan     | SDLP         |
| Cllr Brenda Chivers | Sinn Féin    | Cllr Cathal Ó hOisín | Sinn Féin    |
| Cllr Michael Coyle  | SDLP         | Cllr Alan Robinson   | DUP          |
| Cllr Marion Donaghy | Sinn Féin    | Cllr Edwin Stevenson | UUP          |
| Cllr Boyd Douglas   | UUC          |                      |              |

The Independent Members of Limavady DPP are:

- Shauna Devine is a teacher from Limavady
- Charlotte McDonald is an art technician from Limavady
- Sam McGregor is a retired director from Limavady
- Nigel McLaughlin is a farmer from Dungiven

- Sheila McWilliams is a Community Worker from Limavady
- Maria O’Kane is a student from Dungiven
- Diane Rathfield is a Manager from Limavady
- Rosemary Savage is a part time secretary from Limavady

The Northern Ireland Policing Board was responsible for appointing the Independent Members to Limavady DPP and to all DPPs.

Following a public advertising campaign for prospective Independent Members in November 2007, those that met the selection criteria were interviewed by their council’s Selection Panel.

Limavady Borough Council’s Selection Panel was made up of 3 Political Members of the DPP and an independent panel member who worked to the Code and Guidelines of the Commissioner for Public Appointments for Northern Ireland (OCPA (NI)).

The Panel selected candidates based on merit. A list of those considered appointable to the DPP was then forwarded to the Policing Board for consideration and final appointment.

The Policing Board’s DPPs appointment panels included Political and Independent Members of the Board, an OCPA independent panel member and an impartial assessor who also worked to the OCPA Code and Guidelines.

While all councils selected candidates on merit, in making the actual public appointments the Policing Board had to ensure that each full DPP - Independent and Political Members together - were as representative of the local community as could be made.

To achieve this the appointment panels considered the perceived backgrounds of each DPPs Political Members, noted their gender, used statistics from the 2001 Census, and considered the make up of each area (taking into account for example, the age, gender, religious background, disability and sexual orientation of candidates).

To ensure complete impartiality individual candidates remained nameless and could not be identified by panel members. In accordance with Section 10 of the DPP Application Form (the Political Questionnaire), information on a candidate's political involvement or political activities were also withheld from members of the panel. No candidates were therefore selected or excluded on the basis of their political affiliations or opinions.

The Northern Ireland Policing Board funds 75% of Limavady DPP while Limavady Borough Council funds the remaining 25%. Overall responsibility for the DPP lies with Limavady Borough Council's Chief Executive, Mr Liam Flanigan, while the DPP Manager undertakes day-to-day management of the DPPs affairs.

Limavady DPP should hold a minimum of six meetings in public a year. Members of the Public can become involved in shaping their local police service in a number of ways. For example:

- Asking the Area Commander questions by writing to the Chairperson of your DPP who will ask the question on your behalf at the next public meeting (questions must be submitted nine working days before the meeting the meeting itself
- Asking a DPP Member to ask a question on your behalf or
- Attending the public meeting itself (all meetings are advertised publicly 14 days in advance).

Your rights and our responsibilities from 29 February 2004

Under the Freedom of Information Act all District Policing Partnerships, including the Limavady District Policing Partnership, must have a Publication Scheme that sets out the information we routinely make publicly available.

The Information Commissioner has approved our scheme and we have to review it from time to time. In adopting (or reviewing) our Publication Scheme, we are required to have regard to the public interest in:

- Allowing public access to information we hold; and the
- Publication of reasons for the decisions we make.

Our publication scheme must:

- Set out the classes of information which we publish or intend to publish
- Say how we will publish the information in each class; and
- Say if we will provide the information free or charge for it.

The purpose of our Publication Scheme is to let you know what information is readily available from us without you needing to ask us for it. By readily available we mean that the information is:

- Available on our website
- Can be obtained from us if you request it by letter, e-mail or telephone call
- Can be purchased from us.

Part Two of our Publication Scheme sets out the Classes, or types of information, that we publish or intend to publish. Part three; our list of publications supports the Publication Scheme. It lists specific publications we make available, how they can be obtained and whether they are free or if we will ask you to pay a charge.

Freedom Of Information Act 2000

The Freedom of Information Act 2000 will give you a right of access to recorded information held by public authorities, subject to certain exemptions.

The Act applies to the vast majority of public authorities, including the Limavady District Policing Partnership. The Act came fully into force on 1 January 2005, if you ask us for information we are required to:

- Let you know in writing whether we hold the information you have asked for; and
- If we do, provide the information to you within 20 working days, unless it is subject to an exemption.

We also have a duty to provide advice or assistance to you or anyone seeking information (for example in order to explain what is readily available or to clarify what is wanted).

Responsibility for the Limavady District Policing Partnership Publication Scheme

Liam Flanigan, Chief Executive of Limavady Borough Council has overall responsibility for the Publication Scheme.

The person responsible for maintaining and managing the Publication Scheme is:

Charging for Publications

In Part Two, we indicate for each class of information whether the class includes chargeable information or not. In Part Three, our Publication List, we indicate which of the following charging regimes could apply.

Where a class does not contain chargeable information, this means that a single copy or print-out would be available for free, whereas requests for multiple copies or print-outs may attract a charge for retrieval, photocopying or postage purposes.

Free of charge on website — There is no charge made by us, although the user will, of course, have to meet any charges made by their Internet Service Provider and/or telephone company as well as any personal costs for printing, photocopying etc.

For those without access to the Internet, we will provide a single printout of an individual publication, as shown on the website, free of charge from the above contact address.

Chargeable on website — Requests for multiple copies of publications or multiple printouts printed by the DPP from our website (where an individual does not have access to the Internet) or for copies of archived material no longer available on the website will attract a charge.

In meeting requests, the first 30 pages will be free of charge. At the discretion of the DPP, a charge of 10 pence per sheet will be made for each additional sheet. We will let you know the cost when we receive your request. The charge will be payable in advance and will also include postage and packaging.

Free of charge hard copy — indicates a leaflet, booklet or periodical which is published by the Limavady District Policing Partnership without charge.

Where a publication has gone out of print and a photocopy of the publication is required, there will be no charge for that copy. Where more than one copy is requested however, a charge of 10 pence per page may be made at the discretion of the DPP.

Chargeable hard copy — indicates a bound paper copy, cassette or other product charged as shown in our publication list.

Where a charge applies the cost and the reasons for levying such a charge will be made known to you. Any charge will be payable in advance.

Copyright

Different bodies might own the copyright of material contained in our Scheme:

Limavady District Policing Partnership Copyright Material

For material where we own the copyright, it can be reproduced free of charge in any format or medium for research, private study or for internal circulation within an organisation. This is subject to the material being reproduced accurately and not being used in a misleading context.

Where material is being republished or copied to others, the source of the material must be identified and our copyright acknowledged.

Other Copyrighted Material

Some material we include in our Scheme may be the copyright of a third party. Our rights to hold and use such material do not extend to others. You must obtain authorisation from the copyright holder(s) concerned if you wish to copy or reproduce such material.

DPP Corporate Logo

The District Policing Partnership corporate logo is also copyrighted and may not be reproduced other than as it appears on copied material unless the express permission of the Northern Ireland Policing Board has been received.

Requests for Personal Information

Under the Data Protection Act 1998, you already have a statutory right to have access to personal data we hold about you on computer or in a structured manual file (i.e. on paper).

You also have the right to expect us, as the Data Controller, to ensure that data is:

- processed fairly and lawfully
- obtained for specific and lawful purposes
- adequate, relevant and not excessive
- accurate and where necessary kept up to date
- not kept for longer than is necessary
- processed in accordance with the rights of the data subject
- kept secure
- not transferred abroad unless to countries with adequate data protection laws.

For the purposes of the 1998 Act, “personal data” is information that relates to a living identifiable person. The person or organisation who controls the purpose and manner in which data is processed is the “Data Controller”. More information on the Data Protection Act can be found on the website of the Information Commissioner www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk or from the address given below.

Information where Limavady District Policing Partnership is the Data Controller

Where we are the Data Controller, you are entitled to be told whether we hold data about you, and if we do:

- to be given a description of the data in question
- to be told for what purposes the data is processed
- to be told the recipients, or classes of recipients, to whom the data is or may be disclosed.

You are also entitled to a copy of the information with any unintelligible terms, acronyms or codes explained. You will also be given any information available to us on the source of the data. The data will be in its latest form.

If you wish to apply for access to your personal data, known as “a Subject Access Request”, you should write to the DPP at the above address. A fee of £10 must accompany your request together with proof of your identity. This may take the form of a valid United Kingdom or Irish Passport, a United Kingdom driving licence with a photograph, a Translink Senior SmartPass, or an Electoral Identity Card, or some other form of identification as the DPP may request.

We also need to be supplied with the details needed to locate the information you seek. A request for access to personal data will be dealt with promptly and in any event within 40 days of receipt of the request and payment of the fee.

If you consider that a request by you for access to your personal data has not been dealt with properly, you may:

- Write to us at the above address seeking resolution of your complaint
- Write to the Information Commissioner, who is appointed to consider such complaints at:

Office of the Information Commissioner
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow, Cheshire
SK9 5AF

The Information Commissioner is empowered to assess whether there has been a failure to comply with the 1998 Act. The Commissioner can issue enforcement proceedings if satisfied that there has been a contravention of the data protection principles.

The Commissioner can also recommend that you apply to court alleging a failure to comply with the subject access provisions of the 1998 Act. The court may make an order requiring compliance with those provisions and may also award compensation for any damages you have suffered as well as any associated distress.

Environmental Information Regulations

If you wish to make a request for information under the Environmental Information Regulations (EIR), you should write to:

Review of the Limavady District Policing Partnership Publication Scheme

We will review our Publication Scheme in June 2011.

Availability of this Scheme in other languages and formats.

You can obtain a copy of this Publication Scheme from us, free on request, in accessible formats such as Braille, large print and audiocassette, and in minority languages to meet the needs of people not fluent in English.

Part 2 - Classes of Information

Introduction

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, our Publication Scheme must say what classes, or broad types, of information the District Policing Partnership already publishes or intends to publish.

We aim to publish as much information as possible about our work through the Scheme, except where it would not be in the public interest to do so. For example, because it might prejudice law enforcement, or the health and safety of staff.

For each class we briefly define the information contained in that class, the format in which it is available and whether the class includes chargeable material (chargeable material is indicated by a “£” sign).

For those who do not have access to a computer, all information contained in this Publication Scheme (including the Scheme itself) is available in hard copy format from the DPP Manger, Angela Martin
